FORTY-SIXTH CONGRESS.

DAILY PROCEEDINGS OF THE SENATE AND HOUSE.

Financial Bills and Private Bills in the Senate—Iowa Opposed to Reduction of Legal Tenders.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—A number of private bills were introduced; also a bill by Senator Morrill to facilitate the refunding of the national debt.

On motion of Senator Thurman the Senate resolved that when it adjourns to-day, it will be met on Monday.

Senator Carpenter offered a resolution declaring that the resumption circulation of gold, silver and greenbacks as lawful money, and the expectation that finance would not be disturbed by precipitate legislation had been followed by revived industry and general prosperity, that the successful conduct of business depended upon a stable financial policy, and that, therefore, in the opinion of the Senate any legislation during the present session materially changing the existing system of finance would be inexpedient. The Senate went into executive session.

At 12:45 the doors were reopened, and the Senate adjourned until Monday.

HOUSE.

Among the bills and resolutions introduced and referred was one by Mr. Gillett, of Iowa, declaring that Congress is opposed to any reduction in the volume of money in circulation, but on the contrary in favor of substituting backs for national bank notes, and in favor of free and unrestricted coinage of 412½ grain silver dollars. Mr. Connor, of South Carolina, introduced a bill to return to the freedmen of the South their savings deposited in the Freedmen's Savings and Trust Company.

The House then at 12:30 went into Committee of the Whole for the purpose of distributing the President's message.

It was distributed the President's message among the appropriate committees, the House at 12:55 adjourned until Monday.

The bill introduced to-day by Mr. Gillett to facilitate the refunding of the national debt is a duplicate of the Treasury Department bill introduced in the House yesterday.

From the Indian Country.

DENVER, Col., December 4.—A Los Pinos special says that Chief Colorow appeared before the commission Monday and stated he took part in the Thorburn fight, corroborating the statement that he and Jack led in the fight.

He gave the Utes the same doing to avoid the soldiers and were surprised when the commands came up and began to fight. Colorow swore positively that the Mormons promised to assist the Indians in any war with the United States, from which he voluntarily surrendered himself as a prisoner.

The Chilian War.

LODGE, December 4.—A Buenos Ayres dispatch dated December 3d, says: "Intelligence has been received here that the Peruvians, who had been completely defeated at Tarapaca, Peru, by the Chilians, who have taken possession of the town, A Chilian squadron is blockading the port of Arica."

LA PLATA.—A dispatch from Valparaiso to the Reuters Telegraph Company, says: "Tarapaca has been captured by the Chilians. The losses are heavy on both sides."

Base Ball Notes.

BUFFALO, Dec. 4.—The Board of Directors of the National Base Ball League met yesterday. The championship pennant of 1879 was awarded to the Providence Club. The application of the Cincinnati Club was reported favorably. The membership of the Syracuse Star Club was declared forfeited for their failure to play out the schedule of games, and the outcome of the game between the Chicago and Cincinnati clubs for August 13th was declared forfeited, by Chicago's placing them third. N. E. Young was re-elected Secretary. The newly-organized Cincinnati Club was admitted to membership.

A Horrid Tale.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Dec. 4.—A man named Upton was arrested yesterday in Ansonia, for causing the death of his infant. According to his wife, he had been a widower for a few weeks ago, and, quarreling with her, hurled a litigated lamp at her, which fell into the cradle and set fire to the clothing over the child. In an endeavor to extinguish the flames, the clothing of the wife, who were also sleeping, was probably the infant lived a few hours only. Upton and wife have been married two years, and have hitherto lived happily together.

Revenue Raid.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—The Commissioner of Internal Revenue received a telegram from Collector of Customs of Atlanta, Georgia, stating that Deputy Collector Wilson and party has seized a distillery with eleven men guarding it, five of whom were arrested, and six driven away. Mr. Clark also reports that Deputy Collector Roberts has seized a large distillery in Monroe county. He destroyed eight hundred gallons of beer and removed the stills.

Ashore.

ATLANTA, Dec. 4.—George Mansfield was killed at Jonesboro, Ga., last night, by J. M. Walker. They were opposing candidates for intendant, and were electioneering. It is stated that Mansfield knocked Walker down and was beating him, when Walker drew his pistol and shot his assailant in the heart, killing him instantly.

Advance of Wages.

SCRANTON, Pennsylvania, Dec. 4.—Yester evening the men in the iron and steel employed in the car sheds of the Delaware Lack & Western railroad in Scranton, were notified of an advance of from five to ten per cent in their wages, without any request on their part.

Not Pardoned, but Committed.

NEW YORK, Dec. 4.—Wm. G. Gilman, who was sentenced in 1877 to five years in the State prison for forgery, and whose case attracted so much attention at the time from his social standing and the confession made by the prisoner, was yesterday released from Sing Sing. Governor Robinson having commuted his sentence from five years to two years, one month and twenty days. A petition, signed by 1,000 New York citizens, was presented to the Governor for Gilman's pardon, which he declined to grant, as well as the later request of Governor Horatio Seymour. Presumably in consequence of Gilman's additional weight of crime in his case, his wife, and wife, he has now consented to the special request for commutation. It is generally supposed that the Governor was actuated to grant the commutation by reading a notice of the death of M. M. S. Miersky, suddenly did the document make its appearance, and with the idea that he should be enabled to attend her funeral.

Miscellaneous Foreign Notes.

LONDON, Dec. 4.—The Queen yesterday telegraphed to the Emperor of Russia, congratulating him on his escape from assassination.

The Times' Berlin correspondent in discussing the recent attempt to assassinate the Emperor of Russia, says the outrage of Monday might have been only a day earlier, if the Tsar in his interview had communicated the sentence of death passed on Nihilist Miersky, cannot fail to make the government regret its ill-required leniency, and intensify its determination to have no further pity on those who are themselves incapable of compassion.

LATE NEWS NOTES.

A painter, John Eisman, fell from the fifth story scaffold of a building in Buffalo Wednesday, breaking his neck.

At Woonsocket, R. I., Wednesday, Mrs. Timothy Tree, distressed at the death of her child, cut her throat and will probably die.

The trial of Major Reno, United States army, for drunkenness and conduct unbecoming an officer, is now in progress before a court-martial at Fort Meade, Dakota.

George Cooper, an old citizen of Talbot county, Md., was found dead on his bed last Sunday morning. Saturday night he was up and in good health.

The clerk's room at the White House has been broken into.

DAILY NEWS

GEO. C. JORDAN, Editor and Prop.

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 5, 1879.

THE present trade-mark division in the Patent Office at Washington, consisting of two examiners, a clerk and messenger, will be continued, and a Baltimore correspondent says that Congress will probably pass an act early in the session authorizing the holders of trade-marks to enter them when practicable as labels without further expense. Those who are indifferent about the matter will ask for the return of their fees.

The Republicans take but very little interest in the selection of a Democratic Presidential candidate, for it is only a matter of a funeral, and the Republicans have no choice as to who they should bury.—Washington Republican.

The Republican is rather too slow for this busy world. It would take the trouble to glance over its exchanges it would see that the Republican journals from the East to the West are discussing the probabilities and possibilities of the nomination of either of the prominent Democrats mentioned in connection with the Presidency. And don't we too sure about that funeral.

WHEN the Milwaukee Wks. sent some weeks ago published an account of the experience of a prisoner confined in the House of Correction, where he gave a description of the horrible treatment the inmates received, that paper was prosecuted for libel. But a committee was appointed by the board of supervisors to investigate the matter, and they made their report, which corroborates the sentinel. The committee states that the inspector is incompetent, that abuses have been practiced in the management of the institution, and that the prisoners have been tortured.

A SINGULAR instance of executive clemency is that of granting a commutation of sentence by Governor Robinson, of New York, to the noted forger Gilligan, instead of issuing a pardon. The request was made for a pardon, and it was indorsed by the best men of the State, but it required ex-Governor Seymour's influence to obtain even the concession of a commutation. The difference in terms may appear trivial as long as the man is at liberty; but a commutation acts on a criminal in the same as any other discharged convict, while a pardon would restore him to the full rights of citizenship.

THE returns show that the property now held by the colored people of Georgia aggregates $5,182,358, about $5,24,875 last year, and this too, when the bulk of property has decreased at least ten per cent in value. They have added thirty-nine thousand three hundred and nine acres to their possessions during the last year, making a total of three hundred and forty-one thousand one hundred and ninety-nine acres owned by the colored people in Georgia. This record is a good one, and shows that the colored people of Georgia are prospering. There are only four colored men in the State worth over $10,000, so that the property of $5,182,358 is divided in small lots among the colored people of all classes and all sections.

NO State law in the South has suppressed either the Ku-Klux, the White Leagues, the Red-Shirts, or the Night-Liners, and if they have disappeared, it is because persecution has decided to put on another guise.—Washington Republican.

That is your version. The Republican is well aware that there are no such societies in existence, or if there are they have kept so quiet as not to have been heard of for several years, and are thus virtually extinct. To be sure there is no State law suppressing specifically the organizations named, but there are State laws enacted for the protection of every citizen, be he white or black, and these same laws are as efficacious as those in force in any Northern State. And another thing, there is a more powerful agent at work in the South against such organizations than either National or State laws, and that is public opinion; and it must be confessed on all sides that thus far it has done its work well.

THE papers which saw fit to buy the right to publish the message of President Hayes and the report of Secretary Sherman, both of which were stolen, merit no commendation. The thief is the one who should be condemned. It is probable, however, that after a little time and trouble the master will be dropped.—Philadelphia Record.

In the old time there was a saying that "the receiver is as bad as the thief;" but the old code of morals have undergone many and important changes since then, as exemplified in that journal of high moral ideals, to wit: the Tribune. That journal, not content under the able management of Editor Gould, with being a party to what honest men would term a swindling transaction, purchased a stolen copy of Secretary Sherman's report, and it was telegraphed from that office to the Cincinnati Gazette, Chicago Tribune and Boston Advertiser. Of course, this is classed as newspaper enterprise, but it is of the same order that actuates a bank burglar to bribe a janitor. Such a thing would have been tolerated in the days of Horace Greeley, and in justice to his memory his friends ought to denounce the paper that carries at the head of its editorial column the legend "Founded by Horace Greeley," and at the same time lends its once powerful aid to promote stock-jobbing swindling schemes, while it is ever ready and willing to bribe persons to betray their trust. The other papers are not to be blamed—they are not so rigidly righteous in their daily utterances as is this "Ammindab Sleek" of the New York press.

BLOOD FOR BLOOD.
The Mosalaw recognizes revenge, although it classes it as a punishment. But the words are there: "An eye for an eye; a tooth for a tooth;" and if this is not the very essence of a revengeful spirit we would like to know what it is. From that time down it has been deemed essential for the safety of community, Christian or Pagan, civilized or barbarous, that the wrong-doer should be punished in proportion to the magnitude of his crime. If the criminal was a murderer it has for ages been deemed eminently proper that he should expire.

at his crime by death. It is not necessary to say much of the vendettas in Southern Europe, where the next of kin to the murdered person is recognized as the proper avenger and pursues the criminal until he is killed and he in turn meets with the same fate, as we have had a practical illustration of the same in the Underwood-Holbrook war in Carter county, Ky.

However the principle still stands as the dictum of the people throughout the law, and there was never yet a law framed and adopted that did not meet with more or less opposition. In these later days self-styled philanthropists have busied themselves with instituting an effort to do away with capital punishment, and at times have been moderately successful. They carried their point in Wisconsin, commuting by statute the death penalty to imprisonment for life. The same plan has been advocated in other States, and societies have been formed for the advancement of this idea, but as yet their efforts have not been crowned with marked success.

This subject has been lately revived by well-meaning persons extremely sentimental in their ideas, who, every time capital punishment is inflicted, and there happens to be some defect in the arrangements by which the criminal experiences some useless torture, raise a terrible outcry against enforcing a death penalty. Prominent among them at the present time is Mr. Henry Bergh, the noted New York philanthropist, who has gained a world-wide reputation for his efforts in behalf of the brute creation. He denounces the system of public and so-called private executions. If a man must suffer the death penalty let him be confined in a cell and dispatched with an anesthetic or by electricity. "Painless executions" they are termed, and those opposed to capital punishment, finding that they are making slow headway, are indorsing the project. They want man, if his life must be taken, to be taken instantaneously, either by poisonous vapors or by a powerful electrical stroke. A writer of a perfect ground swell in favor of Seymour and McDonald as the standard-bearers of the Democracy for 1880 has recently developed in the Carolinas and in Virginia.—Correspondence, Augusta Ga. Chronicle.

There is no section of the Southern mind worthy of being called or counted in any Southern estimate, so utterly debauched or so insanely desperate as to desire Grant, under any possible conditions.—Montgomery Advertiser.

I speak by the card when I say that a perfect ground swell in favor of Seymour and McDonald as the standard-bearers of the Democracy for 1880 has recently developed in the Carolinas and in Virginia.—Correspondence, Augusta Ga. Chronicle.

To represent Shelley of Alabama, he has arrived in Washington. He says that everything is prosperous and happy in his State, and that the colored people are as contented and doing as well as the white people. In politics he says there is little or no division in sentiment. The vote of the State will be given to the Democratic candidate, whoever he may be, although Bayard is the preference of the Democrats. The Grant boom, he says, has not reached Alabama.

An old bachelor says Barnum's circus tent, near the last couple of times, would make an excellent canvas belt for a fashionable female.

One matador how indulgent a man may be, no matter how sweet a disposition he may have, he will feel considerably put out, if not totally wild, when he discovers that his wife has been driving nails in the wall with his razor-strop.

She was the first and we reckon the only woman who did not gather up her dress in both hands and yell at the sight of a snake.

They met, “twas on the street—
“I'm a widow,” thought the one—
“The other thought: “What feet?”
Yet they did talk—

Together walk—

And kissed each other's cheeks—and chalk.

A German has discovered—what won't a German discover?—that 20 per cent, of men and 71 per cent, of women have had a fit of the hiccups, and one should remember that a woman's lack
of hair always wants fixing just at the
critical moment, while the men generally have very little, if any hair to trouble them.

I have a boat, too nice is he,
I love him car and mare,
His coat is blue, his hair is green,
It is home the lakelets shore.

I never sigh for ruder loves,
His course to me most true;
And when he leaves me, on my lips
He leaves a beau tract, too.

Cuticura
BLOOD AND SKIN HUMORS.

The Scourge of Mankind. Old Methods of Treatment and Remedies die a Failure.

CUTICURA Resolves the Great Blood Purifier and Remedy—The most soothing, cleansing, and purifying agent of this country. It may be detected in the saliva, sweat, mucus, blood, and urine in formerly healthy persons, and the physician
should remember that a woman's lack
of hair always wants fixing just at the
critical moment, while the men generally
have very little, if any hair to
trouble them.

For a boat, too nice is he,
I love him car and mare,
His coat is blue, his hair is green,
It is home the lakelets shore.

I never sigh for ruder loves,
His course to me most true;

And when he leaves me, on my lips

CUTICURA THE SCOURGE OF MANKIND.

Messrs. Wiers & Powers, Gentlemen—I cannot refrain from adding my debt of gratitude to you for having placed within my reach the wonderful CUTICURA Remedy.
I have had many instances of great relief and further experiment of physicians, and in a remarkably short space of time, have rid myself of all the diseases of the skin, and with all physicians two years ago believing they did me no good. The CUTICURA has stopped this unsatisfactory experiment—even if it were to last a year, and the course any longer to follow their advice—and brought the long-looked-for cure and happiness.

I have been afflicted with Eczema or Salt Rheum on my scalp, breast, and hands for a year, during which time I have been under the treatment of physicians, or at natural springs, or taking some kind of medicines. I have seen great relief by the use of CUTICURA, and visited sulphur springs and taken numbers of patent medicines, all without the faintest approach to success.

April 1st, I began the use of CUTICURA, which I immediately succeeded in curing entirely. I have since had a clear scurf for 15 years until the use of CUTICURA entirely healed it and left it gone, and since that time I have not been affected in a more aggravated form, but have now completely healed, I believe myself completely cured, I shall soon be rid of all the diseases of the skin, and for a time I have entirely discontinued for, its wonderful action on the stomach and bowels and curing influence on all the diseases of the skin, and I have done in many cases, to urge the afflicted to use these wonderful remedies.

TUTT'S PILLS
SYMPTOMS OF A
TORPID LIVER.

Loss of Appetite, Bowels constive, Pain in the Head, with a dull sensation in the back and neck, and aching in the shoulder-blade. Tumbness after eating, and a general debilita-tion of body or mind, Irritability of temper.
Loss spirits, and a feeling of heaviness.
Fluttering in the Heart, Dots before the eyes. Yellow Skin, Headache with fitful dreams, highly colored Urine.
IF THESE WARNINGS ARE UNHEeded, SERIOUS DISEASES WILL SOON BE DEVELOPED.

TUTT'S PILLS are especially adapted to such a condition, as such a change of feeling is to annoy the liver.

CONSTIPATION.

Only with regularity of the bowels can perfect health be enjoyed. If the constipation is of recent date, a single dose of TUTT'S PILLS will remove it, and the patient will be soon relieved. If the constipation has been of long duration, it will be necessary to take one pill between every slight meal, gradually lessening the frequency of the doses until a regular daily movement is obtained, which will soon follow.

are both plenty and cheap.

Sheriff Presnell, of Caldwell county, escorted two black sheep to the Penitentiary yesterday.

The Grand Lodge of the State having closed its session many of the visiting brethren have returned to their homes.

The Mayor's office looks deserted these days, and Billy Carter thinks of going to Detroit and routing out old man Bijah.

Superintendent Mills, of the Oxford Orphan Asylum, shook the dust of Raleigh from his feet yesterday and returned home to look after his little charges.

The cotton boom is increasing

The November report of the Superintendent of the Oxford Orphan Asylum has been received. The cash contributions amount to $1,758.19, while those in kind are numerous but the cash value cannot be readily estimated.
All contributions makes a showing that tends to convince us that the orphans were not forgotten Thanksgiving Day.

The bright light that was observed in the winter months reflected the glare from the burning gin house of Mr. W. D. Williams, of this city, located about four miles from here, on the Chapel Hill road. The house, gin and some twenty bales of cotton were totally destroyed. The fire is supposed to be the work of an incendiary. There was no insurance on the property.

We Atlast have an extensive sale of buggies. They are paronized bargains, and can be seen at this machinery warehouse, corner of Wilmington and Davis streets. We wish it understood that they are not to be sold by us, but the buyers will be shown out to the best price to obtain the value. It is stated they are the cheapest and best buggies ever offered in this market.

With the commencement of the winter season the palate of the dainty man longs for oysters—and the dainty woman, too, for that matter. And when the hungry couple desire to sequelize themselves from the wide, wide world, the oysters in, and content-the beauty and pleasure of a Cherrystone oyster, the best and most enjoyable place so to do is at Moseley's restaurant on Fayetteville street, opposite Tucker Hall.

Wednesday evening our colored citizens, bearing in mind that the seventeenth anniversary of the issuance of the proaching, met at the court house for the purpose of making arrangements for celebrating the day in an appropriate manner.

After the adoption of a preamble and resolution relative to the event, officers were chosen, as follows: President of

R. Harrison, Jr.; orator, Charles H.
Otey; chief marshal, B. H. Dunston; reader of proclamation, J. Lipscomb; resolution, Miss Jane E. Young; a committee of arrangements was appointed with James H. Young as chairman.

Franklin Times, and Miss Lucy R.
Dent, of that place were married at the

The ceremony, which was witnessed by the attendants, Mr. W. G.

Green; Mr. E. P. Spivey and Miss Mollie Wilder; Mr. W. H. Furman, Jr., and Miss Helen Thomas; Mr.
R. Davis and Miss Anna Green; Mr.
H. L. Thomas and Miss Lucy Furgurson.

The reception at the Eagle Hotel was a brilliant affair, and the supper given by the landlady, Mrs. Green, we must not fail to mention. The bride was the recipient of several handsome presents.

One Experience from Many.

"I had been sick and miserable so long and had caused my husband so much trouble and expense, no one seemed to know what ailed me, that I was completely disheartened and discouraged. In this frame of mind I had taken a bottle of Hop Bitters and used them to make myself a little better to improve and gained so fast that my husband and family thought it strange and unnatural, but when I told them what had helped me, they said 'Hurrah for Hop Bitters! long may they prosper, for they have made mother well and us happy.'—The Mother."

Skating To-Night.

The rink continues to be the chief attraction of the city. The number of those who attend, roller skating, and those who succeed in it well, is growing larger, and a marked improvement
